GREATER REAL ESTATE GROWTH IN INDIA, PREDICT EXPERTS

Property consultants Cushman & Wakefield are hopeful of further growth in the Indian real estate sector, going by governmental emphasis on smart city development and housing in general.

The new government has put greater emphasis on the housing sector in addition to development of a total of 100 smart cities. Relaxation of FDI investment norms is another big plus towards enhancing developer liquidity and swifter project turnarounds in the long run. All of these initiatives will go a long way towards reviving the fortunes of this pivotal business sector. Property price trends have largely been confusing across 2014 and Cushman & Wakefield has tracked a total of 8 cities in this aspect.

Pune, Bangalore and Kolkata witnessed high demand and increasing price levels in this category in these three quarters. Based on Cushman & Wakefield's findings, real estate should get a timely boost in 2015 owing to governmental initiatives.
